Camp Instructors

Nicki Starry

Nicki is one of the most experienced and knowledgeable softball instructors in the Central PA area. After being a member of nationally ranked high school teams, Nicki accepted a full ride to the University of Wisconsin as a Catcher. After graduation in 2002, she started her own softball academy and travel organization. In 2010, Nicki moved to the Central PA area to coach the York College softball team. She has a great desire to share her knowledge and love of the game to inspire the next generation of softball players.

In The Net Softball Staff

Our instructors will teach the girls the necessary skills to excel at Softball. They will learn new techniques and skills regarding pitching, hitting, and fielding, all while having fun!
